David Darling.

April 5, 1945-

Today was my first day of leisure. And though it was a pleasure to sleep as late as I want and then spend most of the day reading, I don't think I want more than a week of this. It's even more lonely when I'm not working.

Finally I finally got a letter from you folks. I'd forward it to you except that I'd be in a day or so (it doesn't look like much when I write it but there are two long deep ahead of me before I'll see you again directly) and you'll see it then.

The letter is addressed to D. Darling but I couldn't wait so I opened it - but sure enough inside it says "Dear Davey & Ruthie" so I ain't a-prying into your mail.

Barling, I got your letter Tuesday. Gee, I'm awfully glad. Had a day, that's what I swear

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp, biting cold that seemed to seep into my bones. I shivered as I walked towards the entrance of the building.
 The door was open, and a warm glow emanated from within. I hesitated for a moment, looking back over my shoulder at the dark street behind me. The car was still there, its headlights illuminating the pavement. I took a deep breath and stepped inside.

The interior of the building was warm and inviting. The air smelled of freshly baked bread and coffee. I walked through a long hallway, the walls covered in a pattern of red and white tiles. The floor was made of polished wood, and the ceiling was high with exposed beams. I reached a set of stairs and went up.

At the top of the stairs, I found a small room. The walls were painted a soft yellow, and the floor was covered with a thick carpet. In the center of the room was a large, ornate fireplace.
 The fire was burning brightly, casting a warm glow across the room. I walked towards the fireplace, my hands outstretched towards the heat.

As I stood there, I felt a sense of peace and comfort. It was as if I had found a safe haven. I closed my eyes and breathed in the warm air. The sound of the fire crackling in the hearth was soothing. I stayed there for a long time, until the warmth of the fire had seeped into my soul.

When I finally opened my eyes, I saw a small figure standing in the doorway.
 It was a young girl, no older than ten, with dark hair and a bright smile. She was holding a small basket in her hands.
 I walked towards her, and she ran to me. She hugged me tightly, and I felt a sense of joy and happiness.

She looked up at me and said, "Welcome home." I smiled back at her, and she led me to a small room. The walls were painted a soft blue, and the floor was covered with a thick carpet. In the center of the room was a large, ornate bed. The bed was made up with a white sheet and a red blanket. I walked towards the bed, and she followed me.

She stood at the foot of the bed and said, "This is your room. It's very nice, isn't it?" I nodded and said, "Yes, it is." She smiled and said, "I'm glad you like it. You can stay here as long as you want." I looked at her and said, "Thank you."

She nodded and said, "Good night." I walked towards the bed and lay down.
 The bed was soft and comfortable. I closed my eyes and fell asleep.

The next morning, I woke up and found the young girl standing in the doorway. She was holding a small basket in her hands. I walked towards her, and she ran to me. She hugged me tightly, and I felt a sense of joy and happiness.

many I receive a few more letters from you. I am so glad you had good news. I am so glad you got started on your bright book. I am so glad you did have such a good time coming to the new two train weeks before you and the other one. No wonder you were sick every time you on a train. Darling I hope the accident didn't occur. The train you were riding.

Love you are very lucky to catch the California train especially after being up for hours. Let a man of your age sit cross a train. You don't know how much fun you enjoyed the book. Personally I think the author is very good.

I know you have not waiting for you but I had a lot of letters but accumulated. Just please be receiving that daily and there should be no more because I write you every day. Darling I don't want to receive your letters I've been waiting since you go to the hospital a week before to the home. I don't know why it is so long to write to you since you left and I don't know how to write with you the happiness of the summer. You don't know how I'm coming out to you. It's good to think of you being in. I hope you find a place for me very soon for the most part I adhere to the schedule I set up today. The only thing I don't get to use is your car I mean to write, but I'll take care of that soon. I hope I have to be repetitive here but I think the business of being a free correspondent is outrageous. There was when I could knock off give me and take a night's work at all. But now, outside of work I have to work. I can carry you to a lot of money here. I'm using that intelligence. But you by now and all rapidly growing.

I finished the letters for the 2nd time of writing because the pictures were all. I then went and took the bus I threw the whole mass in another called him to make some more so I was trying again tomorrow.

I ran and from father and told them the news from Joe. He says that from the mother. I told them from Joe and to her and from her that I didn't mean anything for the 'Okay' and to me from between the lines. In fact I always told you from her in a way as a wife.

She had me say something about being hungry and I was eating. I had a wonderful dinner and yesterday with coffee. I was a very good, sweet because just like it is well everything I ate for

At about two o'clock or so I was in my car and told me from her to her from her and just so much to talk about) and went up to her the first thing I did there was just a report on the last, that kid doesn't know what she wants and I am going to show you the again.

While that the car took off one of the cups from our house. Because it took a nice set I replace it but I couldn't do much because I for bring the cup with me. Anyway I got stuck in entirely department and there are so many good things to look at. Honestly looking when I come back I see some of the things I want as a I walked around just staring up all of them looked at and after some time I found my way of that department.

I called that from the other just in case she wanted anything. And it so happened she was

A couple of them on Long Street, which was the the place on my agenda.

We have hardly anything above just all day.
We have had up I believe more my arms and I walked around all day. It was a help me.

We had decided to walk to go to the bank and on the way we used an automatic. I took looked at my arm and looked back at me. Then after my last argument I convinced myself that since it was so and it would be a very nice thing to have some the coffee. I without waiting to hear the other side I crossed the street (just as the light changed, if I waited for me I might have done without) and brought my favorite, green and apricot pie. But it was really following (anyway, not very) I didn't all of the week, and you know there's just a good thing.

I know it's completely irrelevant but something just occurred to me (that was back fenny, if it wasn't so cold I'd look it up, it was as if it spelled funny). I think that you might prepare a letter of thanks to your brother-in-law and when the package comes you can mail the letter and all with the Turkey-Lorry.

But I must get back to my day. I walked to the Plymouth Theatre and brought back for Starbuck's mother to see "The Great Unknown".
The Agatha Christie story I think I sent you, but one of those cozy murder affairs I was
'And Then There Were None'. It's a wonderful tale wherein ten people get killed as punishment for crimes they committed that were inside the house.

Stack Old Homes For New Military Personnel Here

Committee of City
Leads to Meet Daily
To Work on Problem

The housing problem in New York City is being tackled by a committee of city leaders who are meeting daily to work on the problem. The committee, which includes Mayor Vincent S. Impellitteri, is expected to make recommendations to the city council by the end of the month. The housing problem is particularly acute in the city's military districts, where the demand for housing is high and the supply is low. The committee is working to find ways to increase the supply of housing and to improve the quality of the existing housing stock. The committee is also working to coordinate the efforts of the various agencies involved in the housing problem, including the city, the state, and the federal government. The committee is expected to make recommendations to the city council by the end of the month.

It is a good thing that two letters came at once and I found out immediately that you got your allotment check. There is a racket what makes the service men's wife a sucker. These are the creatures who watch the Post man when he brings the check, and break open in the 10 minutes from 10:00 to 10:10, I had a good and friendly conversation with other people think of the coming trial from a deep heart with a little of a sad atmosphere. I want to have a last time when I disappointed a person I know how much you like your work. During some time very soon as to other living our people.

Right after supper tonight I went to my room. I down I was a fine one. I was very nearly worked very hard. I about twenty minutes prepared the laundry bundle. Then I went to bed and was of the house.

I went to see Father tonight. He got an apartment newer building and all pretty very nice. There are good size rooms and a porch. The building is very all the lights on the kitchen. He was very happy. He kitchen and all the other. They have a 'jug' just like and there is an apartment in the building, and there He is really very lucky to get this apartment.
He is very happy to know what the furniture is. The kitchen is of very modern and the style is English Regency. It is very simple good furniture will never be hard. The furniture that (Father didn't know) of oak wood and the chairs really beautiful. There are more leather seats. I found the living room for the house. They only a week ago they were very well suited. I think. I

Today is the usual kind of day. Work hard and had the satisfaction of a day well spent. Late the usual trip that is served at the mess hall and afterwards chatted about it with the fellows.

I received no mail from you today but I guess tomorrow will bring a letter more. Right now I am writing you and as always that is the high spot of every day.

Today Benney and I were talking to all the G.I.'s who had cars. But could get one who would be willing to sell. We saw some very nice cars at nice prices but still no one willing to sell. So Benney and I will head for Albuquerque and look the field over Sunday.

Tomorrow I am scheduled to relax in the barracks. You see we have kitchen orderly which is combined with barracks guard so I don't have to work tomorrow. I love miss you very much.

A - Every Reading Guide - The (John & Edna) are an amazing - most things so we can keep out on them they'll be a little less. Don't worry, the kids are all studying, they don't sleep for hours later.
The kids and adults are all the way out working hard as parents as a matter of fact, I think that mother time is an offer to be in something that Edna like a beautiful piece of her mother material to be made into a overage in little Michael. The is funny on them now and will probably be a small piece of work. Dad will give mother some with some when the kids are not home. The family is thoughtful and the kids are all near each other. Nothing else right now, at least with the kids everyone else.

I still can't get over it, I did almost a full day's work today, and that is something no kidding.

Dear I forgot to tell you that I already have a room for you at the Franciscan for August 4th. Its a double so in case a friend of yours or his is coming to town they can share the room. I hope you haven't forgotten to ask Hy to come in.

Still no mail from home. I imagine everyone must be very tense what with all this waiting. I'm so excited now I can visualize what things & persons will be like when Bernard finally arrives.

Tonight I washed clothes, and even got around to ironing some plus some other stuff. I darling now have got clean underwear & come on in - and don't forget to bring in a couple of pairs of socks!

Good! I told you I'd get us some meat this week and I kept my word. We're going to feast on my own thinking.

I always feel that I let down on Tuesday because you're far! Today though I feel that I got because Friday I let you, the three nights away and I can just think to let then, but I don't want to.

Nothing very much happened today. I then did the able to finish the murder story in the office. But I did about three or four hours was today as I didn't quite finish the book. I don't think awful.

There was no mail from home today but it just there'll be some tomorrow. Don't forget with you have to write to David dear - they're all waiting.

I walked home from work today just because I need some exercise. Now was a hot, the sun is terrific here. As always I was hungry when I got home but 'cause I couldn't think anything to do I had pasta & eggs and I gobbled that up quickly. Did you enjoy your lunch party? Or did you talk out the party again?

Later on I went over to Frieda & after doing nothing for awhile we worked up an appetite for ice cream - so down we went.

to the USO. After that I called a night & eve home. It was too late to do anything about house so I just relaxed with a book & the don't laugh darling but Calum managed to the chocolate pudding. I must have a tape things as other explanation.

Love's I finished reading "The Voice of Forth" and it's really good. It's not a literary masterpiece but it's funny and I'm just enjoy it. Maybe we can get to see when we go home on further. Besides I think that about five or six weeks before further to see we ought to write to so our friends can get us whatever letters we want. Would you like that?

I know how absent minded you are so remind you again. Don't forget to get a coupon and see that your pen has filled up. Now, do you know that you got your duffel bag? There isn't much in it except for a comb - that's just what I thought of sending it to you. I hope you'll be able to bring in the P.M.s - carry it in paper bag if you have to please.

Turning this off in the morning - I set the alarm for 6:30 but as this morning I did yesterday made me so sleepy I just couldn't get up in time and I'd planned to do so much.
But I'll tell you one thing that in spite of all the crap I ate yesterday I lost two pounds, maybe I ought to go on an ice cream diet it seems to work wonders.

I'm kind of sorry I bought that cheap alarm clock - that damn alarm rings so persistently, I just can't ignore it! In spite of it though I don't get out of the house any earlier.

Sweethearts yesterday (Monday - this part is being written Tuesday) they brought in a $25 bond to me. I'd forgotten it was due so soon, in a couple of weeks or so I'll get another - they will be rich in no time.

I won't write on dear because I want to send this off to you. Make Friday come soon will you.

Love me, you,
Bestie
Love wife & sweet heart

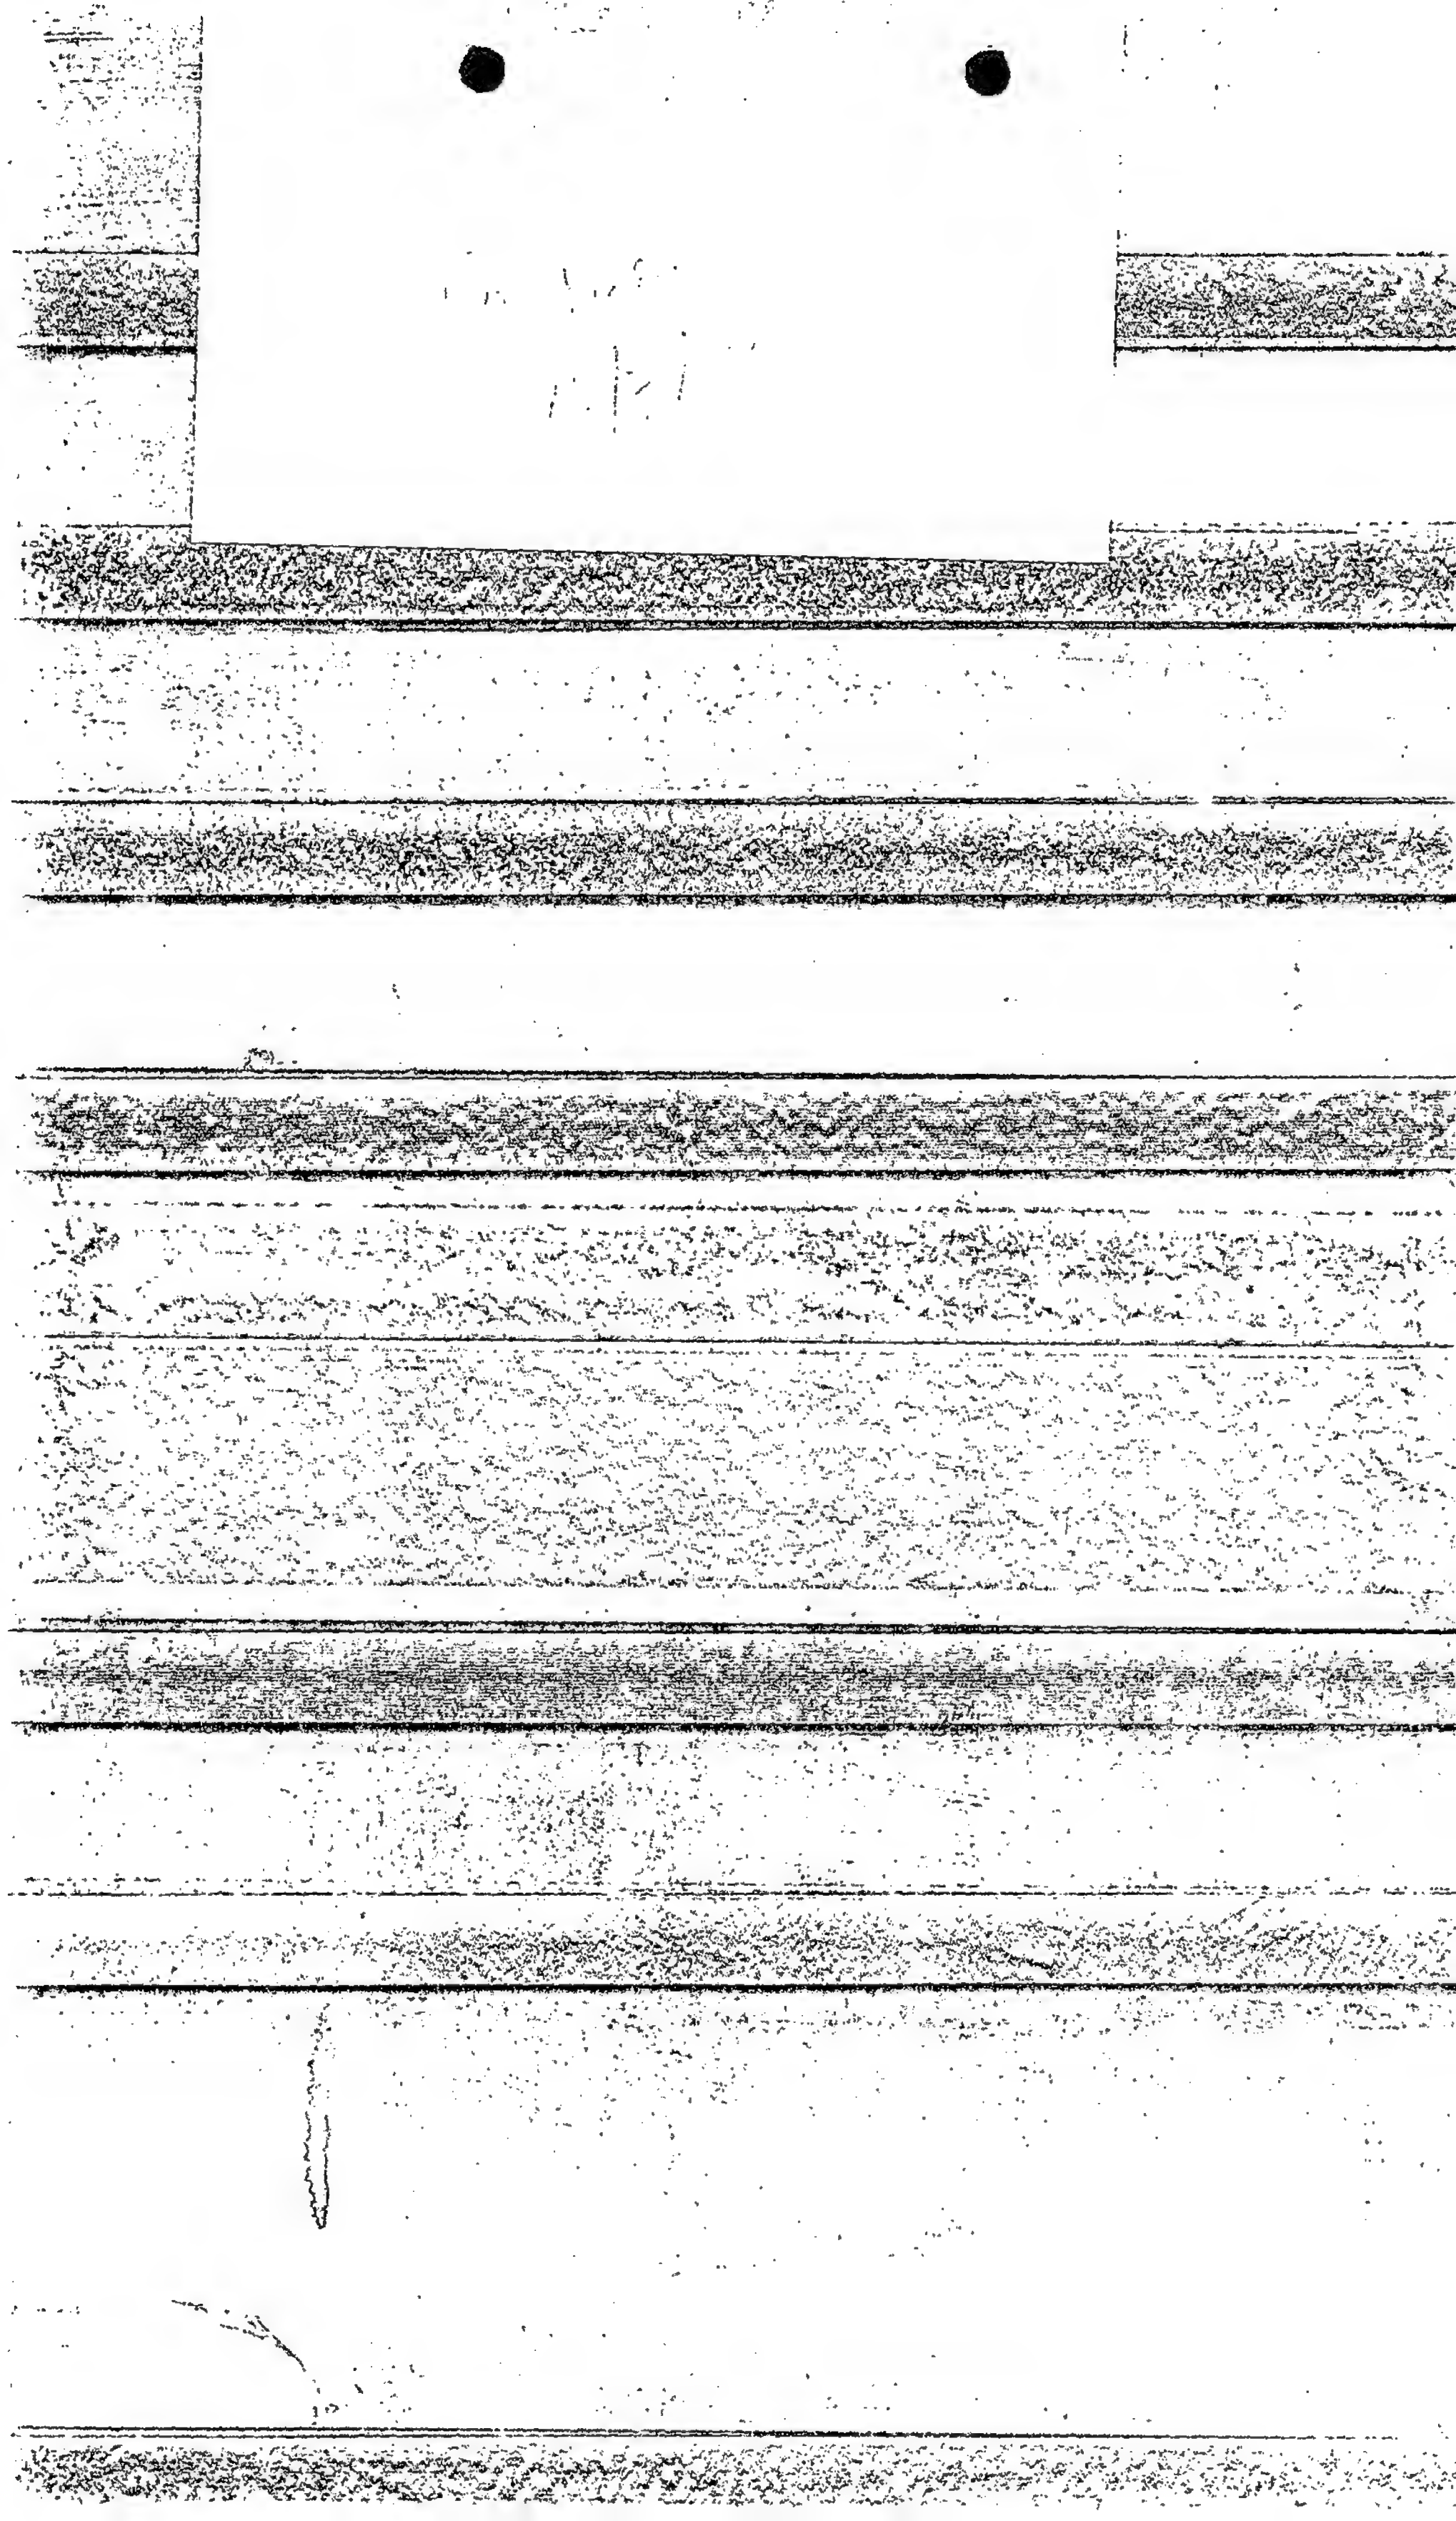

R.S. Love for me
Love for you - for sleep.

Sweet's telegram was called in yesterday morning at 7:30. I woke our landlady up but she was very sweet about it. I'll use my talent to get something but don't worry dear I won't work myself into a frazzle.

Later boored said letter yet a while is something because none of us are preparing any work in Sunday. It would be nice if the mail let me know what it had so we won't starve this weekend.

This afternoon I went to the movies with Jane. We saw the "Don't Give Up" and I didn't like it at all - too crummy. Which reminds me dear don't you dare to.
